What's Expected of You

1. Rehearsals will start promptly at the specified time on the rehearsal schedule unless otherwise approved by the directing team; you are expected to be on time. 2. Come prepared to all rehearsals. You all have been given the rehearsal schedule and you know what rehearsal it is, ensure that you are in proper attire. You should ALWAYS have shoes on; and especially on dance days; you should ensure you have comfortable clothes you can move in; and closed toed shoes; no sandals or flip flops and always bring your script and a pencil.
3. The rehearsal Schedule has been given to you, if you have listed conflicts on your audition form, these are excused. All other conflicts must be cleared by the directing team, and you must email them your conflict/reason for missing and that you are going to miss before you do. The email to send it to is bearcattheatrecompany@gmail.com. Please note on the audition form you signed that more than 3 unexcused rehearsals, and you will be removed from the show. This also includes excessive tardiness/leaving early to rehearsals. PLEASE BE AWARE THAT LEAVING EARLY IS NOT ACCEPTABLE, and you are responsible for this.
4. TECH WEEK rehearsals are mandatory, no excuses. If you have to miss a tech rehearsal; please understand that you may be removed from your role, or have to miss a performance due to this absence.
5. We ask that you not cut or color your hair without consulting the directing team. The reason that we ask this is, there is a certain image we have in my mind for these characters. If we cast you and you're a brunette, then next week you are blonde, that is an issue, also boys, if we need you to have a part in your hair and your hair was long enough then, and you buzz your hair, that also creates an image problem.

Thank you in advance,

A. Hanaway; M. Lessig; J. Ball; K. Turner
